Michele,

I am not sure if you are going to be able to check your e-mails while in Egypt. If so, I hope that you guys had a safe flight and that you all are enjoying your vacation. If not, welcome back!

Although it has been raining and foggy here in recent days, we are enjoying record high temperatures. At the rate at which the snow has been melting you might be returning to a lot of green grass.

Michele, I can't wait to tell you all about my conversation with our No. 1 suspect in the "John Adams" case. Although he denied being John Adams, everything he said in the lengthy conversation that followed served to reinforce our suspicion that he is the guy. It was at times a very "surreal" conversation. [REDACTED] was certainly accurate in his assessment. This is one very angry and confrontational man! I'll share with you the details when you return to the office.

Take care and enjoy the rest of your vacation!

Jim

I am very anxious to hear about this. I actually came home and as soon as I could open my eyes, read Free Whitewater again. I just never pictured the suspect as being in the loop.

Welcome back!

Michele, I am 99.9% convinced that it is either him or someone he is directly working with because of the things he said to me. Way too many coincidences. I am anxious to tell you about our conversation. Call me when you have the time.
