

James Coan

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Tuesday, September 11, 2007 5:09 PM
To: James Coan
Subject: RE: Question

Hi Jim: I never thought of [REDACTED], but he kind of fits the mold, although he was so busy he had to leave the Park Board and I believe he has relocated to Cambridge...my take on [REDACTED] was that he was not so much of a complainer, he saw a problem/issue, brought it up and encouraged suggestions and solutions. Some of the stuff I read in the FW was way too harsh for [REDACTED].

Good to hear that [REDACTED] has a job she really enjoys; rumor is (OK, I am starting it) she is looking for a place YOU can retire too (not her)! And, the "pain and suffering" she endures at [REDACTED] is considered penance, correct?

I want to go to the Yuma movie, and also catch the new Jodie Foster flick. I think I can drag the HR Director to one, since his wife is living in Utah for the next year, until she can retire. You are right, tho...it's not the same without you, [REDACTED], and don't forget [REDACTED] and [REDACTED], we almost had a bus full!

Say hi to all; we hope to get back this fall and close on the house (keep your fingers crossed) but always enjoy hearing from you!

From: James Coan [mailto:JCoan@cl.whitewater.wi.us]
Sent: Tuesday, September 11, 2007 3:38 PM
To: [REDACTED]
Subject: Question

[REDACTED]

Hi, hope all is well! I am wondering if you recall [REDACTED] (sp?)? If so, do you think that he could be our "John Adams" (author of "Free Whitewater")? Several people from the School System thought that it might be him. I don't know the guy, but I've heard that he is kind of eccentric.

Jim

P.S. FYI, [REDACTED] got a job as manager of [REDACTED]. Between living in a condo and working at [REDACTED], [REDACTED] is feeling like a "teenager" compared to the people she routinely interacts with. Take care and say hi to [REDACTED] for us!

P.S.S. [REDACTED] and I went to "3:10 To Yuma" the other night. Although it was pretty good, it was no "Das Boot". [REDACTED] and I reminisced about our movie going days with you and [REDACTED]. It's just not the same without you!