I never thought, but I agree. If I can, I will attend and take note of the attendees.

Michele,

How much do you want to bet that "John Adams" will be present for the Stone Stable dedication and reception on the 17th (or maybe even taking photos)? I have a good mind to watch from my office. Otherwise, perhaps Alan or his designee could pan the crowd.

Thanks Michele! If I can, I will stop in my office and observe the event across the street.

Jim,

You are on the right track. See below the new posting on Free WW today.

A few days ago, I visited the Stone Stable site, and walked around the property of that impressive restoration effort. I've written about the restoration effort previously, and it is both history and art. There will be a dedication and ribbon cutting effort on Saturday, November 17th at 4 p.m. Here's the announcement with details of the upcoming dedication:

Stone Stable Dedication
Ribbon-Cutting &
Placement of the Time Capsule

Saturday November 17, 4 p.m.
Reception and refreshments following at City Hall

All are welcome!
Commemorative Program & Medal for each attendee

As a festive and fitting recap of 2007 Whitewater Home-Coming we're celebrating the completion of the Stone Stable historic reconstruction project. Over 190 donors have made this possible along with volunteer stone cleaners, plan drafters, artists, event planners, wagon drivers, cookie bakers, brainstormers, letter-writers, sign-makers, and more. What a lot of wonderful participation! Thanks to all and please join us for the celebration.

Soon there will be final bills to pay as well as expenses for landscaping and an informative sign. This is your last chance to send a contribution and be on the list of donors to be placed in the Time Capsule. Send your contributions to Stone Stable PO Box 147 Whitewater WI 53190.
